MEMBERJETS ANNOUNCES SEC COLLEGIATE PROGRAM

(Destin, Florida, August 8, 2019), MemberJets, the nation's largest DOT Approved Indirect Air Carrier, announced today the launch of round-trip flights for multiple SEC Universities to their away football games. SEC football enthusiasts and alumni will now have instant access to individual seats on private jets to multiple away games providing a unique and luxurious experience.

Ty Carter, MemberJets Founder & CEO said, "As an SEC fan we are excited to be working closely with universities within the SEC to provide a unique experience to their alumni, superfans and staff. The ability to offer individual seats through a shared economy without membership or subscriptions allows for an elevated travel experience. We are excited to be introducing an innovative travel experience and to elevate travel options to select SEC events."

Fans who are interested in booking seats to SEC football games can do so directly at www.aviationmarketplace.aero.

The Aviation Marketplace, powered by MemberJets, is an aviation community offering travelers unparalleled access to private aviation without any membership or subscription fees.
